CHILE	Juan Carlos Huenulao (m)	]

	Juan Patricio Marileo (m)	]

---

The four people named above, who began a hunger strike on 13 March, were examined in hospital and force-fed after this UA was issued, but then returned to Temuco prison. They abandoned their hunger strike on 14 May, but resumed it on 20 May, and are now demanding that the parliament pass a bill now being debated which would grant them some form of conditional release. Their health is in grave danger.

The four had apparently suspended their hunger strike when they heard about the bill, which would modify the original Anti-Terrorism Act and could allow the hunger strikers conditional release.

They are all serving 10-year jail sentences: they also have to pay a fine of 425 million pesos, equivalent to US$827,000, not US$827 as stated in the original UA.

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Please send appeals to arrive as quickly as possible, in Spanish or your own language:

- asking the authorities to ensure that Juan Carlos Huenulao, Florencio Jaime Marileo, Juan Patricio Marileo and Patricia Roxana Troncoso, receive adequate medical attention;
- pointing out that the Minister of Interior stated on 28 April that the Anti-Terrorist Law would no longer be applied to the Mapuche people, and asking the authorities to make clear that it will not be applied to any Mapuche people, including these four;
- asking for assurances that the hunger strikers are not going to be subjected to further suffering as a result of force feeding.
