Further information on EXTRA 77/99 (ASA 36/02/99, 29 June 1999) - Imminent execution

SINGAPORE

Norishyam Mohamed Ali, 26, former lorry driver

Shaiful Edham Adam, 23, former commodities broker

---

Amnesty International has learned with deep regret that Norishyam Mohamed Ali and Shaiful Edham Adam were hanged at dawn on 2 July 1999.

The execution came despite an appeal from Shaiful Edham Adam to be granted a short stay of execution in order to dispose of his property to his appointed nominees (his apartment and his other assets and belongings were seized by the Criminal Investigation Department upon his detention).

Many thanks to all those who were able to send appeals at such short notice. No further action is required.
