DAYS HAVE PASSED SINCE THULANI MASEKO WAS KILLED
THE TIME FOR JUSTICE IS NOW

Dear _____

500 days have passed since Thulani Maseko, a fearless human rights advocate, was brutally killed. Despite global appeals, his family and community await justice, with no progress in the investigation. This lack of progress perpetuates impunity and undermines the rule of law. I urge you to advocate for an impartial investigation to hold perpetrators accountable and ensure the safety of his loved ones. Your influence is pivotal in ensuring accountability and honouring Maseko's legacy I stand ready to support any efforts for justice.

Sincerely,
